01

EXHIBIT

“Eddo Stern: New Works” exhibition explores the UCLA professor’s interest in computer games as art. His Darkgame and Cruise Control are featured, plus three of his new short-form computer games. Through Jan. 24 at the Beall Center for Art and Technology, 712 Arts Plaza, UC Irvine, 949-824-6206, beallcenter.uci.edu

03

FILM

Warren Miller, the man who takes your breath away with his you-are-there action-sports cinematography, releases his 65th movie, “No Turning Back,” following skiers, snowboarders, and mountaineers on snowy slopes in Montana, Japan, and France. Dec. 3 and 4 at Lido Live Theater, 3459 Via Lido, Newport Beach, 949-723-0250, warrenmiller.com

07

CONCERT

After a 16-year break, Fleetwood Mac has come together again for the rest of its On With the Show tour. Long-absent Christine McVie rejoined the band last year in London to a resounding ovation, after which the group promptly, ahem, got on with the show. Dec. 7 at the Honda Center, 2695 Katella Ave., Anaheim, 714-704-2500, hondacenter.com

13

INDIE MUSIC

Los Angeles-based Allah-Las pulls off an easy California garage rock sound with an impressive level of music expertise. Three of the band’s four members met while working at Amoeba Music record store on Sunset Boulevard. Dec. 13 at The Observatory, 3503 S. Harbor Blvd., Santa Ana, 714-957-0600, observatoryoc.com

23

FESTIVAL

Fiesta Navidad pairs Grammy-winning Mariachi los Camperos de Nati Cano with traditional dance performances by Folklor Pasi3n Mexicana. Of course, there will be a Las Posadas procession, too. Dec. 23 at Ren3e and Henry Segerstrom Concert Hall, 615 Town Center Drive, Costa Mesa, 714-556-2787, scfta.org

30

MUSICAL

Ring in the new year with “Kinky Boots,” the musical about how a drag queen helps save a struggling shoe factory. Cyndi Lauper wrote the charismatic score, for which she snagged one of the show’s six Tony Awards. Dec. 30 through Jan. 11 at Segerstrom Center for the Arts, 600 Town Center Drive, Costa Mesa, 714-556-2787, scfta.org
